Sticky Knowledge

- Florence Nightingale was a nurse and she saved the lives of many soldiers during the Crimean War. She became known as the Lady with the Lamp as she carried a lamp to check on her patients throughout the night.
- Mary Seacole was a nurse and businesswoman who has become a key figure in Black History because of her amazing achievements - she's most famous for helping the sick and wounded in the Crimean War.
- Christopher Columbus was an explorer, who is most known for discovering America, despite wanting to travel to China!
- Captain Robert Falcon Scott was the first British explorer to reach the South Pole and explore Antarctica.
- Rebecca Adlington is a famous athlete from Loughborough, most known for her swimming. She was the first woman to win swimming gold for Great Britain since 1960. She was the first British swimmer to win more than one gold medal at a single Olympic Games in recent years.
