

What do I already know?

In Explorers, I learned...

- We are all special in our own way – people help us, people give us advice and some people do things for us.
- Vicars and priests are important to some Christian believers as they teach us about the word of God.
- Guru Nanak is the person who found Sikhism.

In Philosophers, I learned...

- Christians believe Jesus is real (not like Disney heroes), and he died for a reason, and came alive again at Easter.
- Jewish people teach that Moses was a holy man. People all over the world have been inspired by Great religious leaders for many hundreds of years, in their millions
- 4 famous books about Jesus’ life, called ‘Gospels’, are named for their writers: Matthew, Mark, Luke, John. They are in the Bible. ‘Gospel’ means ‘Good News’.

What will I now learn?

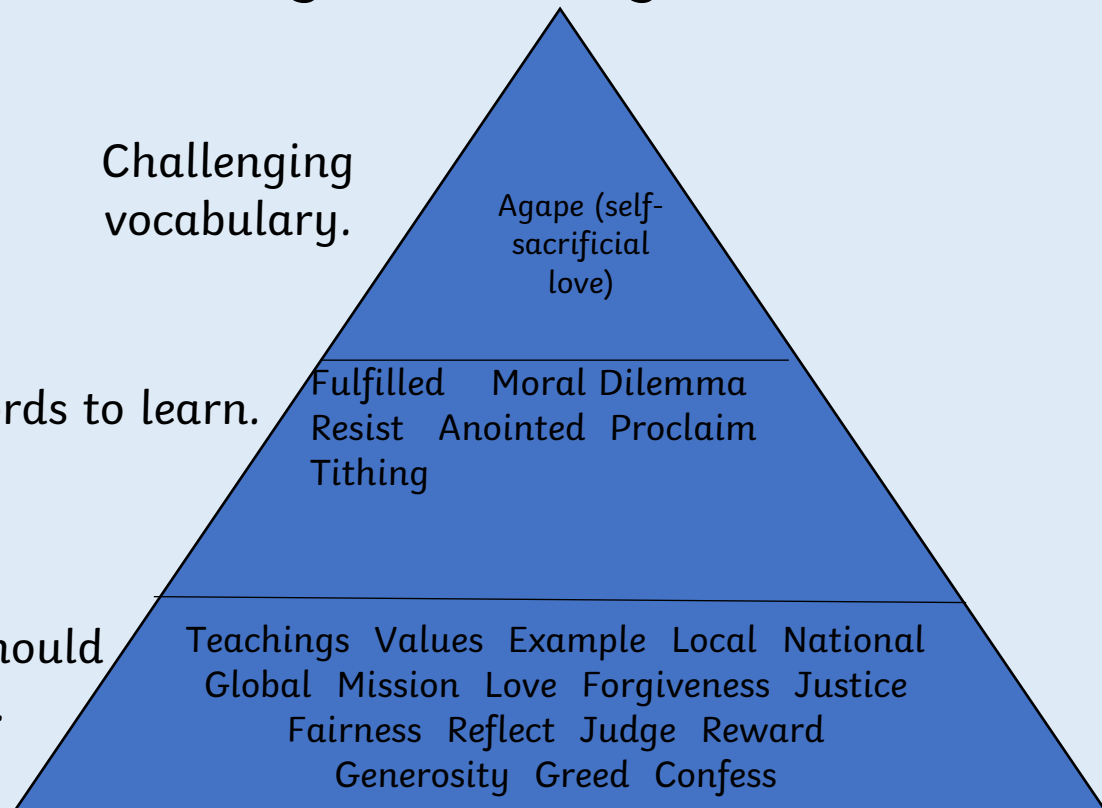

- Outline Jesus’ teaching on how his followers should live (A2).
- Offer interpretations of two of Jesus’ parables and say what they might teach Christians about how to live (B3).
- Explain the impact Jesus’ example and teachings might have on Christians today (B1).
- Express their own understanding of what Jesus would do in relation to a moral dilemma from the world today (C3).

Key Vocabulary:

Challenging vocabulary.

Words to learn.

Words I should know.

Sticky Knowledge:

- Jesus was a 'man with a mission': he had 5 points: to give poor people good news, to free prisoners, to help the blind to see, to give liberty to oppressed people and to tell people God would bless them this year.
- The Bible places emphasis on love. One example is in 1 Corinthians 13, known as Saint Paul's Letter about Love. This is a poem in the Bible which explains how we should treat one another.
- Jesus also taught his disciples and followers about 'agape love'. This means 'self-sacrifice love'. This means to love and treat others with respect and dignity.
- The western religions (Christianity, Judaism and Islam) believe that peace is brought about by an emphasis on peace in the community.
- We should encourage a cohesive community. This is where we work together. One way of promoting cohesion within communities is the promotion of fairer global food system.
- Christians often ask themselves, 'What would Jesus do?' when they encounter challenge or difficulty.

What was Jesus' mission?

Luke 4:18-19

"The Spirit of the Lord is on me,
because he has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour."

What do we remember about these quotes from last lesson?

Jesus was a 'man with a mission': he had 5 points:

- to give poor people good news,
 - to free prisoners,
 - to help the blind to see,
- to give liberty to oppressed people and
- to tell people God would bless them this year.
